Last Call For Exhibits At Iowa State Show

Almost a year has passed, and the 1984 Iowa Numismatic Association Convention is rapidly approaching. Now is the time for all possible exhibitors to begin planning their presentations. The time and effort needed to form these displays cannot be underrated, for the exhibitor provides the educational foundation that makes any coin show worthwhile.

Through display the general public, as well as fellow collectors, gain insight and numismatic knowledge that increases interest and appreciation of the uniqueness of each exhibit. So, now is the time to plan how best to exhibit the pride of your collection.

The show will be held September 28-30 in Fort Dodge at the Holiday Inn on Highway 169 So. The classification of exhibits are as follows:

1. U.S. Coins
2. Gold Coins
3. Paper Money
4. Foreign
5. Medals, Tokens, Exonumia
6. Junior - Under 16 years of age
7. Winners Circle

Entry is open to all collectors who submit a completed, signed application to the Exhibit Chairman: Larry E. Stubbs, 1609 Grove, Webster City, Iowa 50595.

Exhibits may be placed any time between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 12:00 Noon Saturday, September 29, 1984. No exhibit may be removed before 3:00 P.M. Sunday, September 30, 1984. Each exhibit may be entered in only one classification, but each exhibitor may enter separate exhibits in other classifications. The number of cases or total length of space needed will be asked for on the application, as this is necessary in order to plan best utilization of space.

The INA Constitution And By-Laws was brought up to date at a committee meeting in July of 1983, was further revised at a board of directors meeting on October 1, 1983, and was approved at the general membership meeting on October 2, 1983. You will find the complete text beginning on page 12 of this issue. Please save it!

A Golden Anniversary Coin Show

The Omaha Coin Club will observe its golden anniversary with a show on Saturday, November 3 at the Holiday Inn, I-80 and 72nd street in Omaha, Nebraska.

The Iowa connection for the show is Chris Seuntjens of Ankeny, who is conducting the auction and mail bid sale. Those who have items to add to the auction have a September 20 deadline in which to do so.

Clifford Mishler Guest Speaker

Clifford Mishler, publisher of numismatic weeklies and monthlies at Iola, Wisconsin, will be the guest speaker at the Saturday night banquet in Fort Dodge, September 29.

Interestingly enough, it was Chester Krause of the same Iola firm, who was the speaker at the INA convention when it met in Fort Dodge in 1966.

We See By The Bulletins . .

Burlington Coin Club

This Club, which meets on the last Tuesday of each month at the Arion Restaurant, had its annual picnic June 2. It included outside games and bingo. Probably used pennies to mark places on the bingo cards.

The May auction featured a 1939D Jefferson nickel and an 1890 liberty seated dime in fine. Among the 37 lots on the July auction were an 1867 shield nickel without rays, and a 1925 standing liberty quarter in VG.

A door prize with a value of about $10 was given to some lucky attendee at the July meeting.

This Club has separated the office of secretary and treasurer in order to have better control of incoming and outgoing funds. Each member has a By-Law book.

Fort Dodge Coin Club

During June, July and August the number of lots on the Fort Dodge auctions ranged from 93 to 119. Although a majority of the lots are coins, the Club does branch out into tokens, medals, stamps, old maps, or whatever attracts collectors.

Among major items on recent auctions are: three 3c nickels, a 1934 Union Pacific medal which sold for $2.75, an 1897 AU nickel which brought $29.00, rolls of Indian head cents which sold for $20.50 one month and $15.00 the next month, a 1912S Nickel in good which went for $15.50, a 1939D unc Nickel for $15.00, a 1917 type 1 quarter in XF which brought $28.00, a BU 1925 Stone Mountain commemorative, and much more.

Naturally the coming INA show, being hosted by the Fort Dodgers, is a major topic both in and out of their bulletins.

Mike Scacci is being nominated by members of the Fort Dodge club to serve on the INA board of directors as representative from the area.

The September meeting of the Club is the annual picnic at which members and spouses enjoy broasted chicken and soft drinks at the expense of the Club. Each family brings hot and cold dishes and eating utensils to a park north of the city.

Clarion Coin Club

The big event just ahead for the Clarion coin collectors is the observance of their 300th meeting to be held this September 28 with a dinner meeting at the Cornerstone Restaurant in Clarion. This will likely be followed by reminiscences on the development of coin collecting in the area. Dick Simpson, current president, is chairman.

Rather than having the usual auction, a bid board will be in place with choice items on which bids will be welcome.

The first meeting more than 25 years ago was held in a local bank on August 21, 1958.

A number of interesting items have been on recent Clarion auctions, such as: an 1832 half dime in fine; an 1817 capped bust half dollar in fine; an 1860 type III silver three cent piece in very fine (sold for $29.00); an 1870-S Liberty seated half dollar in VF to EF (sold for $33.50); National currency $10.00 from First National Bank of Denison, 1929 (sold for a low $22.50); nine trade tokens in one sale ranged from $3.00 to $5.75 in selling prices.

Keokuk Coin Club

A feature of the July meeting was a report on the paper money show at Memphis, Tennessee, by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrow.

Plans were announced for the Keokuk club to join those who picnic about this time of year. The August meeting was held at Rand Park with the Club furnishing meat and cold drinks.

The 64 lot auction in July featured such items as medals and foreign commemoratives; four milk tokens; a 1785 Constellation cent in VG; 1857 and 1858 flying eagles; and even transportation tokens.

The club bulletin editor, who has carried on the publication for more than 23 years, announces a replacement must be found no later than June 1985. The Bulletin doesn't say specifically, but we presume Lee Marsh is editor.

Tri-Cities Coin Club

The Tri-Cities club, meeting at Moline, Illinois, emphasizes that their summer meetings are held in air conditioned comfort. Ken Crawford resigned as president in June because of work scheduling conflicts. Tim Mattee, vice president, has moved up to fill the vacancy.

Among the choice items on the Tri-Cities club auctions were: 1950-D nickel with steps; nice BU Mercury dimes with split bands; 1891-CC Morgan dollar in VF; 1881-O Morgan dollar in BU; Bank of Upper Canada 1852 penny token; and a 1949 Chicago Railroad fair bronze token.

This Club tries to have programs each month. In July the program was an ANA slide program, "Coins and Medals of the Renaissance."

Plans are being made for their annual show to be held October 14 at the Viking club in Moline.

Buena Vista Coin Club Has 21st Annual Coin Show

The 21st annual Coin and Collectables Show sponsored by the Buena Vista Coin Club, Storm Lake, was held August 18 and 19 at the Harbor House.

Jesse Lee was general chairman and Dale Johns was bourse chairman.

Issues Book On "Iowa Trade Tokens"

Iowa authors in the numismatic and related fields are doing a fine job of keeping Iowa on the national map. The newest of these is Lewis K. Ferguson of Ames, author of "Iowa Trade Tokens," issued this summer of the Token and Medal Society of the United States.

The hard cover book lists and describes literally thousands of trade tokens from towns, cities and villages all across the state. The printed volume runs to 520 pages.

Tokens are described by shape, material of which made, size, and the complete text on the token. Rarity ratings are also given on a scale of 1 to 5.

A valuable feature of the book is a listing of mavericks — giving the town of origin of tokens which do not list the town and state of issue.

This is the second issue of "Iowa Trade Tokens." The first issue was in looseleaf form several years ago, printed by mimeograph, and had a couple of supplements. The present volume is a monumental achievement in one of the large fields of collectables. Mr. Ferguson is an engineer and land surveyor by profession.

Is This The Secret Of Coin Club Growth?

BY-LAWS OF THE IOWA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

Scope of the By-laws

It is intended that all powers of the Iowa Numismatic Association, conferred upon it by virtue of its incorporation, shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of these By-laws; and that admission to membership in the Association, the rights and obligations of members, and tenure of membership shall be subject to and dependent upon the provisions herein and the exercise of the authority herein conferred.

ARTICLE II

Membership

Section 1. Qualifications. Any person of good moral character, having attained the age of eighteen years and being interested in Numismatics, may become a member of the Iowa Numismatic Association, subject to the provisions of this Article.

Section 2. Application for Membership. Application for membership in the Association shall be made to the Secretary-Treasurer in writing and in such form and under such conditions as the Board of Directors shall from time to time prescribe. Any person under the age of 18 years and sponsored by a Senior Iowa Numismatic Association member may be considered for Junior membership. Junior members may not hold office or vote. The names and addresses of club members are to remain secret and will not be published in any way without their express written permission.

Section 3. Annual Dues. The amount of the annual dues shall be fixed by the Board of Directors, and shall be due on January 1st of each year and considered delinquent if not paid on or before May 1st. The membership year shall coincide with the calendar year. Members admitted during the first six months of the year shall pay full annual dues, but those admitted during the last six months of the year shall pay only one-half of the annual rate for the remainder of such year.

Applications for membership shall be accompanied by advance payment of dues, the amount of which shall be in conformity with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph. Should any application be declined, such payment shall be promptly returned to the applicant by the Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 4. Good Standing. A member in "good standing," within the meaning of the term as used herein, is one who is not delinquent in the payment of dues or of any other indebtedness to the Association, and against whom no charges have been preferred and sustained; provided that, if such charges have been sustained and the penalty of suspension as hereinafter provided shall have been exacted, such member shall be regarded as having been restored to good standing.

Section 5. Delinquent Dues and Other Indebtedness. In event a member's dues shall become delinquent and are not paid within ninety days thereafter, the Secretary-Treasurer shall so notify the Board of Directors, who may then declare such membership terminated forthwith.

Similar action may be taken in the case of other indebtedness to the association, the due date of which, in the absence of other provisions, shall be fixed by the Board of Directors; but such termination of membership shall not affect the validity of the claim for the amount due.

Section 6. Resignations. If a member wishes to resign, he shall submit his resignation to the Secretary-Treasurer, and the same shall become effective as of the date received, provided such member is in good standing and no charges pending or are preferred within thirty days thereafter; otherwise, termination of membership shall be governed by such provisions of Sections 5 and 9 of this Article as may apply thereto.

Section 7. Reinstatement. A former member may make application for reinstatement at any time within two years from the date of termination of his membership. All applications for reinstatement shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, and the payment of dues for the current membership year, and of any existing indebtedness to the Association.

Section 8. Honorary Members. No dues shall be charged Honorary members elected in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of Article III of the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 9. Grievances.

- a. Charges: Any member in good standing may prefer charges of conduct unbecoming a member against any other member, but such charges must be supported by evidence which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, to whom the case shall be submitted, justifies investigation; otherwise they may dismiss the complaint. All charges must be written and be specific in their terms.
- b. Hearings: Upon the receipt of such written charges, the Board shall cause to be sent a copy of the same to the accused, by registered mail, to his last known address, with notice as to place and date of a hearing, which shall be held not less than fifteen days subsequent to the date of such notice. The accused may appear in person, or be represented by counsel, or may make his answer by written communication. Both the accused and the member who filed the charges may call in witnesses. Should the accused, after receiving said notice, ignore the charges, making no answer whatsoever, the Board may nevertheless consider the case on its merits from the evidence submitted, and render such verdict as seems to it justified.

- c. Penalties: If, in the judgment of the Board, the charges have been sustained, they may penalize the accused by suspension for a period by them determined, or by expulsion, giving him written notice of their decision promptly thereafter.
- d. Appeal: A member found guilty as charged may, at any time within fifteen days thereafter, file with the Board a written notice of appeal, which, with full information as to charges, evidence, and answer, shall be presented for final decision to the membership in attendance at the next regular meeting of the Association. A majority vote of not less than two-thirds shall be necessary to sustain the decision of the Board.
- e. A full and complete record of the charges, evidence, answer, decision of the Board, and appeal, if any, shall be made and preserved by the Secretary-Treasurer. No resignation by a member while under such charges shall be considered. In the absence of appeal, the verdict of the Board shall be considered final, and binding upon all parties at interest.

ARTICLE III

Meetings

Section 1. The meetings of the Association shall be regular and special.

- a. Regular meetings of the Iowa Numismatic Association shall be held in September or October of each year, on such days and at such places as may be selected by the Board of Directors.
- b.
